

School Advisory Commission Operational Norms

Section 1: Name

This body is the Holy Trinity School Advisory Commission hereinafter referred to as the Advisory Commission.

Section 2: Parish Structure

The Advisory Commission is a standing commission of the Holy Trinity Pastoral Council.

Section 3: Purpose

The Advisory Commission is an advisory body to the school principal. The purpose of the Advisory Commission is to assist the school principal in:

- Ensuring the school thrives and remains viable for the future
- Ensuring excellence in Catholic Culture, Academics, Whole Child Education, and the Stewardship of Resources
- Supporting the school in its efforts to collaborate with the parish.

Section 4: Authority

Pastor

The pastor is the spiritual and temporal shepherd of the parish. He serves the parish community in his teaching, sanctifying and governing duties. Among his teaching responsibilities, he is to see that the word of God is proclaimed, that the faithful are instructed in the faith, that the Gospel message of social justice is promoted, and he has a special care for the Catholic education of children and youth. (Canon 528) A portion of these responsibilities is carried out through the parish school. He is the key person in relation to the parish educational program.

The pastor is the leader of the parish and as such he is the leader in all the decision-making processes within the parish. The pastor has the responsibility to make decisions consistent with the educational policies established by the Archdiocese. The pastor's authority at the parish level includes the right to approve or disapprove all recommendations made by the School Advisory Board (including budgetary recommendations), and to select the principal of the school. In addition, the pastor has the authority to ratify the hiring of all school employees (including the ratification of teacher contracts).

Principal

The principal is accountable to the pastor for the spiritual and academic leadership and the administration of the school. The principal has a serious responsibility as spiritual and educational leader of the school. The principal assumes responsibility for understanding and accepting the unique role that Catholic schools serve in the educational mission of the Church. The principal serves as the chief spokesperson in articulating this mission and in calling the faculty and students to participate in a significant way in the life of the Church.

In addition to spiritual leadership, the principal is responsible for the administration of the school program. This responsibility includes the employment, supervision, and evaluation of staff, the establishment of educational programming, and the evaluation and management of student behavior. These responsibilities are assumed with archdiocesan and local policies.

School Advisory Commission

The Advisory Commission authority is limited to formal commission meetings or to situations officially defined in this document.

A single Advisory Commission member or a group of Advisory Commission members cannot speak or act on behalf of the Advisory Commission or the school or parish as a whole unless officially designated by the Advisory Commission to do so.

Section 5: Collaboration with Principal

The Advisory Commission collaborates with the principal to advocate for the school in the following areas.

- 1) Members who are frequently absent from Advisory Commission meetings without good cause, or who act in a manner that is contrary to the best interests of Holy Trinity or the Advisory Commission, may be recommended for dismissal by the Advisory Commission to the pastor.

Section 7: Officers

The officers of the Advisory Commission shall consist of a chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary, and shall be elected by the Advisory Commission at the first regular meeting of the school year. All members of the School Advisory Board are eligible for any office. Officers shall serve one-year terms. No officer shall hold the same office for more than two consecutive terms. The pastor has the final approval of all officers.

Chairperson: The chairperson shall preside at all regular and special meetings of the Advisory Commission, shall determine the agenda for all regular and special meetings in collaboration with the principal, and in general, perform all the duties of the office of chairperson and other duties that may be assigned by the Advisory Commission.

Vice-Chairperson: The vice-chairperson, in the absence of the chairperson, shall perform all duties of the chairperson.

Secretary: The secretary shall maintain a written record of all meetings of the Advisory Commission. The principal must approve all minutes. The secretary shall furnish a copy of the approved minutes of each meeting

Section 8: Meetings

- 1.) The Advisory Commission shall meet at least six (6) times per school year, at a designated time and place.
 - a. Visitor comments
 - Although the School Advisory Commission sets aside time for visitor comments and values parental input, due to time constraints, a visitor will be limited to 5 minutes to make their comments.
 - If a parent is unable to attend a meeting, he/she may contact the school principal in writing, clearly indicating the concerns needing to be addressed.

- Concerns can be sent to the Advisory Commission email for discussion and review.
 - The visitor comments, either presented in person or in writing, will be taken under advisement for discussion and/or action by the Advisory Commission or principal at a later date. A call and/or email will follow-up with any discussion and/or action needed.
- b. The right of non-members to address the Advisory Commission at a meeting that is not otherwise open to the school or parish community, shall be reserved to those whose petition has been approved by the principal or chairperson for inclusion on the agenda in advance of the School Advisory Board meeting. The chairperson shall control the speaking time for such person(s).
 - c. The Advisory Commission may move any meeting, at any time during the meeting, into a closed session via an approved commission resolution.
 - i. A closed session is limited to regular and ex officio Advisory Commission members
 - ii. The pastor may invite or allow a non-member to attend a closed session.
- 2.) Special meetings of the Advisory Commission may be called, with the approval of the pastor, by the chairperson or by a majority of the Advisory Commission members.
 - 3.) No Advisory Commission meeting will be held without the principal and the pastor (or his designated representative) in attendance.
 - 4.) Quorum: For the purpose of transacting official business, it shall be necessary that a majority of the total members be present.
 - 5.) The consensus method of decision-making shall be used. Consensus is a Christian approach to group decision-making. It presents an opportunity for all to be heard and avoids a "win/lose" posture that voting promotes. Consensus results in the growth of the group and in fuller ownership of decisions. Consensus has been achieved when there is general agreement or accord among the members. If the board fails to arrive at a consensus and the issue must be decided immediately, the chairperson shall call for a majority vote.
 - 6.) The board may fix its own rules of procedure, but in the absence of such rules, Robert's Rules of Order shall apply.
 - 7.) The ordinary order of business shall be:
 - a. Call to Order
 - b. Prayer and Reflection
 - c. Delegations (if any)
 - d. Approval of Minutes
 - e. Principal's Reports
 - f. Old Business/Decision-making items
 - g. New Business
 - h. Board Reports
 - i. Pastor's Comments
 - j. Closing Prayer

Section 9: Committees

The standing committees of the School Advisory Commission are the Advancement/Marketing Committee, and Home and School Committee. Each committee shall include an Advisory Commission member as an active member of the standing committee. All committee members will sign a confidentiality agreement in advance of carrying out any committee duties.

- a. Advancement/Marketing
 - The Advancement/Marketing Committee provides assistance in developing and analyzing short/long range strategic planning that encompasses student recruitment, alumni relations, internal/external public relations, communications, fundraising, and major events.
- b. Home and School
 - The Holy Trinity Home & School Association is an organization made up of parents, faculty, and parish members of Holy Trinity and St. Michael's parishes. The purpose of the organization is to foster a sense of community through communication and promotion of meaningful activities for the families of Holy Trinity School.

The chairperson, in consultation with the principal, shall establish ad hoc committees as needed.

The Advisory Commission chairperson, in consultation with the pastor and principal, appoints the chairperson of all committees.

The Advisory Commission chairperson and principal, in consultation with the chairperson of each committee and approval of the pastor, may invite persons who are not members of the Advisory Commission to serve as members of these committees.

The responsibility of all committees shall be fact-finding and advisory, but never legislative or administrative. Recommendations by any committee shall be subject to ratification and approval by the Advisory Commission.
